

October 2020

Learn about the Libraries' year of crisis and creativity on Oct. 6

Grab your lunch and join us for the virtual event "Crisis and Creativity: Stories of Ingenuity from the Emory Libraries" on Tuesday, Oct. 6, at 12 p.m.

You'll hear stories from the library staff about how different departments coped with the pandemic closure of the campus, working from home on creative virtual solutions to continue to bring services, resources, events, and exhibits to Emory patrons, and to cope with racial injustice and foster anti-racism within ourselves and our workplace.

REGISTER NOW

Trethewey to close out Decatur Book Festival Oct. 4

The 2020 Decatur Book Festival will wrap up its month-long series of virtual events with the endnote featuring poet and author Natasha Trethewey on Sunday, Oct. 4, at 4:30 p.m.

Trethewey will discuss her new book, Memorial Drive: A Daughter's Memoir, which deals with her mother's death at the hands of Trethewey's former stepfather, and the wider issues of loss, racism, and domestic violence. She will be interviewed by former Rose Library director Rosemary Magee. Yolanda Cooper, Emory dean and university librarian, will give the introduction.

REGISTER NOW

Rose Library acquires papers of Kathleen Cleaver

Rose Library has acquired the papers of Kathleen Cleaver, activist, attorney, and former communications secretary of the Black Panther Party.

Cleaver, who recently retired as a senior lecturer at the Emory University School of Law, became one of a small number of powerful women in the Party, including Elaine Brown, whose papers also reside at the Rose Library.

READ MORE

We should be Friends!

We invite you to join our Friends of Emory Libraries program today. We recently launched this giving society, which is dedicated to supporting the Libraries' vision to increase teaching, learning, and research through innovative resources, spaces, services, and collections. You'll also receive special benefits when you join.

LEARN MORE

RACE & DIFFERENCE COLLOQUIUM SERIES FALL 2020

Race & Difference fall virtual colloquium series underway

The James Weldon Johnson Institute's Race & Difference colloquium series has gone virtual for the first time this fall, and it's been very successful. Organizers are pleased to be able to reach more people than ever before. The colloquia, with a variety of speakers and topics, are held most Mondays at noon and are open to the public at no charge. To register, click the link below.

REGISTER NOW

SUBSCRIBE TO KEYWORDS

KEYWORDS ARCHIVE

LIBRARY NEWS & CALENDAR

MAKE A GIFT